

Welcome to the 23rd Annual International
Gatherings in Biosemiotics

GIBS 2023
WhatsApp group

WhatsApp

Telegram

Gatherings in Biosemiotics 2023 Program Registration Accommodation Presentation upload

Please upload your presentation here.

- ➡ Name your file following this convention: LASTNAME_G23
- ➡ Only upload a PDF, PPT or PPTX file
- ➡ Maximum 50MB per file
- ➡ Please wait until the upload is completed to close this page

Upload files

SELECT FILE

UPLOAD FILE

File OPENING_G23.pptx uploaded successfully

<https://www.biosemiotics.org/gatherings-in-biosemiotics-2023/program/>

On Thu, 15 Mar 2001, Jesper Hoffmeyer wrote:

> Dear Tom

>

> As you will probably know Kalevi, Claus, and I are orgnizing a > meeting in Copenhagen which we have called Gatherings in > biosemiotics (you can look up the details at > <http://www.zbi.ee/~uexkull/biosemiotics/index.html>)

>

> The idea was to have a regular (annual) opportunity to meet and > discuss ideas in the biology end of biosemiotics. From the > beginning
> we decided this was a low budget, I would say no-budget, > event, so > that we would not depend on laborious and, in fact, unlikely > fundings. And also, this would guarantee that people would > come only out of a serious interest in these matters.

>

> Now, this first 'Gathering' seems to become quite an event.
> Several interesting approaches, which I didn't even know > of beforehand, have been announced.
> We have presently received 27 abstracts from many > different countries, even Canada and US.

>

> So I am increasingly sad that we haven't been able to > invite you.

>

